SPRING MEADOWS, Darnestown, MD

Welcome to 14239 Seneca Road in Darnestown, a 1.09-acre sanctuary that brings together refined living, quiet natural charm, and effortless comfort. It's the kind of property that immediately feels welcoming, spacious, tranquil, and beautifully in tune with the landscape around it. Part of the Spring Meadows subdivision and free from HOA restrictions, this one-of-a-kind custom home offers a rare sense of privacy and the freedom to shape the lifestyle you want. A sweeping forty-six-foot covered brick front porch creates a warm, gracious welcome and hints at the thoughtful design carried throughout the home, built with care by the original owners. Inside, natural light fills each room, lifted by 9-foot ceilings and a floor plan designed for both easy gathering and comfortable retreat. The updated gourmet kitchen is a true centerpiece, featuring custom cabinetry, new quartz countertops, premium appliances, and an inviting breakfast area that opens through French doors to peaceful backyard views. The breakfast area and the formal dining room make the main level ideal for everything from casual mornings to elegant dinner parties. Nearby, the light-filled great room, anchored by a cozy natural gas fireplace, opens to a secluded 17' x 17' screened-in porch, the perfect spot to enjoy quiet mornings and relaxing evenings as you take in your peaceful surroundings. The private backyard attracts a variety of wildlife year-round giving you a front row seat to nature. The main level also features a spacious first-floor primary suite with generous walk-in closets and a spa-like bath. Completing this level are a mudroom, pantry, powder room, laundry room, the convenience of both front and rear staircases, and an over-sized 3-car garage, thoughtfully placed to make daily living feel seamless. Upstairs, four large bedrooms, each with its own private ensuite bath, offer comfort and privacy for family and guests. The upper-level family room is an unexpected showpiece: a vast, sunlit gathering space with skylights, a natural gas fireplace, and a full wet bar with sink, dishwasher, and beverage cooler. Together with a second laundry room steps away, this level functions almost like a self-contained wing, perfect for family game nights, movie marathons, or a private oasis for overnight guests. The expansive lower level adds more than 2,600 square feet of possibility, offering an open layout with high ceilings, a finished full bath, and a walk-up exterior entrance. Whether you envision a home gym, theater, guest suite, or creative studio, the space is ready to evolve with your needs while still providing abundant storage. Throughout the home, every detail reflects quality craftsmanship and long-term care—from the hardwood floors and ceramic-tiled baths to the HardiPlank siding, fire sprinkler system, central vacuum, and whole-house water filtration. A Generac natural gas generator, a newly installed tankless hot water heater, updated HVAC systems, and recently replaced appliances further enhance comfort and efficiency. Ideally located between Germantown, Gaithersburg, and Potomac, the property offers quick access to shopping, dining, parks, and major commuter routes, including River Road, I-270, Route 28, and Great Seneca Highway. The surrounding area is known for strong long-term property appreciation, making this home not only a peaceful retreat but also a smart investment. Beautifully maintained, thoughtfully updated, and perfectly situated, this is a rare opportunity to enjoy privacy, space, and luxury in one exceptional setting. This is more than a home, it's a lifestyle.
